The Genesta Wins the Commodore's Cup at New York.

LAMAR STIRS UP THE RAILROADS.

He Forbids the Payment of Subsidies to the Pacific Mail—Investigation of the Wyoming Outrage—How Jumbo Died

NEW YORK, Sept 18.—The English cutter Genesta retrieved herself by winning the regatta given under the auspices of the New York yacht club near Sandy Hook to-day. It was the annual race of the club, and the prizes consisted of two cups, one given by Commodore James Gordon Bennett for schooners, and the other by Vice Commodore W. P. Douglas, for cutters or sloops. There were eleven entries in the race to-day. The schooners were the Fortuna, the Grayling, and the Dauntless. The cutters were the Genesta, the Clara, the Stranger, the Gracie and the Isis, and the centre board sloops Gracie, Athlone and Daphne.

The day opened clear with a stiff breeze from the southwest. The course was a triangular run of thirty five miles from an imaginary line drawn between Scotland lightship and the [illegible] buoy. The course was as follows: First leg, east by north; second leg, southwest by west by three quarters west, and third leg, back to the starting point. The first two legs were [illegible] and miles each, and the [illegible] third miles.

THE START

The Genesta was towed down from her anchorage [illegible] and arrived at [illegible] about 11 0 A. M. Shortly before [illegible] the first to cross the line was the Clara [illegible] She was followed by the Clara [illegible] over the line at 11 30 and was [illegible] seconds later by the Fortuna [illegible] Grayling, the Athlone, the Dauntless, [illegible] the Daphne and the Isis. The last two [illegible] by an allowance of [illegible] minutes.

The Genesta forged rapidly ahead at [illegible] steadily upon the yachts which had crossed the line before her. She [illegible] was closely pressed by the [illegible] At [illegible] the Genesta, the [illegible] and the Fortuna were almost abreast of each other with the English cutter slightly in the lead. The [illegible] the first five miles it became evident that the [illegible] rest was [illegible] to keep the place [illegible] The result was that she [illegible]

THE GENESTA WINS

Capt. Carter dexterously rounded the first buoy at 12 4 [illegible] followed by the Fortuna at 12 [illegible] The Grayling passed a few seconds later and the Gracie rounded the buoy fourth in the list. The Genesta made a big sweep to windward, and [illegible] the others [illegible] behind that the race seemed [illegible] The Gracie threatened her seriously for some time.

The second buoy was passed by the Genesta at [illegible] and the Grayling which dropped into second place turned at [illegible] The Fortuna [illegible] third and the Gracie fourth, the latter sloop being nearly half an hour behind the English cutter. The steamers Grand [illegible] Republic and [illegible] with a number of steam yachts and sailing vessels were crowded with interested spectators who cheered the crew of the Genesta for the smart manner in which they handle their craft [illegible]

On the home stretch the English vessel [illegible] and she passed the [illegible] with the Grayling second.

There was a private sweepstakes [illegible] during the race by the English cutter Clara, the New York cutters [illegible] and Isis, and the [illegible] which was won by the Clara.

The first prize cup was awarded to the Grayling and the Douglas cup to the Genesta.

The English cutter, however, [illegible] after the race and between the cheers, noise of steam whistles and the [illegible] of fog horns the course seemed [illegible] and everybody was satisfied with the race, and the weather and all other conditions were as favorable as could be desired.

A STARTLING ORDER.

Secretary Lamar Credited with Forbidding the Payment of Subsidies by Pacific Roads

WASHINGTON, Sept 18.—Secretary Lamar is evidently going to shake up the Pacific railroad companies. He has ordered the commissioner of railroads Gen. Joe Johnston to send a letter to Charles F. Adams, president of the Union Pacific, and C. P. Huntington, president of the Central Pacific, stating that the department had been informed that their companies had for years been paying a subsidy of nearly $1,000,000 per annum to the Pacific Mail Steamship company and instructing them to forward to the commissioner a copy of the contract between the companies and the Pacific Mail company, also to cease payment of any moneys to the Pacific Mail company until the matter could be thoroughly investigated [illegible] department.

THE NEWS AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept 18.—Kiernan's News Agency has a dispatch stating that the interior department has ordered the Union and Central Pacific railroads to suspend until further orders the payment of any subsidies whatever to the Pacific Mail steamship company, the department claiming that such payments are illegal so long as the debt of the roads above mentioned to the government remains unpaid.

C. P. Huntington soon after the news reached Wall street said: "Secretary Lamar cannot have given any such order to the Union and Central Pacific, as it is clearly outside of his authority. The payment of subsidies to the Pacific Mail is part of the operating department of these roads. If the government assumes practical direction of the traffic it makes itself liable to the bondholders for payment of interest."

The president of the Union Pacific, who is in Boston, telegraphed Kiernan's agency as follows: "Have heard of no such order. Hardly see how the government has a right to step in and order a violation of a contract [illegible] the Pacific Mail [illegible] payment [illegible] for all [illegible] [illegible] would stop the payment [illegible] other claims."

J. B. Houston, president of the Pacific Mail, said he did not believe the dispatch was true, but declined to discuss it till he had further particulars.

A prominent broker in the Mills building said: "This, in my opinion, is a stock deal. Addison Cammack has got hold of Lamar's ear and prevailed upon him to issue an order which will undoubtedly have the effect of depressing the stocks of these two roads."

FROM THE "NEWS"

NEW YORK, Sept 18.—The Daily News says: It was reported in Wall street today that the interior department at Washington had ordered the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific railroad companies to suspend until further orders the payment of any subsidies whatever to the Pacific Mail Steamship company. The department claims this is illegal so long as their debt to the government is unpaid. Meanwhile the Pacific Mail line is [illegible] with business. [illegible] Pacific Mail [illegible] has already been filed with [illegible] The stock broke down [illegible] per cent on the above report. President Houston of the Pacific Mail company said to-day:

"The talk of discontinuing the subsidy as it has been erroneously termed is nonsense. The fact is we have no subsidy from any railway. All that exists is a pooling arrangement and this is for the best interests of all concerned. This Washington business, which means if the authorities to work [illegible] certain corporations which they would like to see [illegible] in the hands of a receiver."

ACCIDENTS.

DROWNED ON GALVESTON BAR

GALVESTON, Sept 18.—The tug Ranger having in tow the barge Orient laden with 1000 tons of coals from New Orleans arrived outside the bar and in rounding parted her hawser. The barge cast anchor while the Ranger came in for a new cable. A heavy sea was on and the Orient's anchor chains parted, leaving the barge at the mercy of the sea. The barge was soon driven aground three miles from the east end of the island. When the Ranger returned with a new towline she was unable to reach the barge or rescue her crew of five men. A boat was immediately manned by experienced seamen and started for the Orient. When they reached the barge the sea was just wrecking her. The lifeboat drew close to the barge when one of the imperiled seamen jumped into the boat and capsized her. Three of the heroic seamen who went out in the lifeboat came ashore near the Beach hotel clinging to their life preservers. The two other men of the lifeboat crew came ashore later, the last one getting in about the [illegible] to-night. The man who jumped from the Orient in attempting to reach the lifeboat is undoubtedly lost as are his four companions on the barge. Quantities of drift floating ashore indicate that the Orient has gone to pieces. The [illegible] has returned as it is impossible for any boat to reach the scene of the wreck in the heavy sea now running. The men were all residents of New Orleans and their names are unknown here. Capt. Griswold of the Orient is among the lost. The beach for several miles is being patrolled to-night by the government life saving crew. It is expected the bodies will wash ashore when the tide turns at midnight.

THREE MEN KILLED

NEW YORK, Sept 18.—Two accidents, resulting in three deaths occurred to-day at shafts on the new aqueduct. In the first instance a box containing two tons of rock fell upon Patrick Collins and John Ratley. In the second case Wm. Brady ascending to the surface was thrown from the bucket and fell to the bottom of the shaft, 150 feet.

THE WYOMING OUTRAGE

Representatives of the Chinese Government Making an Investigation

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Sept 18.—Three of the government attorneys, F. P. Alexander, M. A. Hanna and James W. Savage are at Rock Springs, investigating the circumstances attending the late outbreak. They gave a hearing yesterday to the committee of citizens who had previously presented their case to Mr. Bromley, the representative of the railroad company. The case was presented in much better shape than on the former occasion and the causes of complaint were made more intelligible and clear. Nothing new however appeared as to the alleged grievances against the Chinese or against the employers of the miners. [illegible], Sept 18.—W. H. Knight, representing [illegible] yesterday [illegible] the death of the elephant Jumbo at St. Thomas, Ontario. After the show [illegible] started down the track with Jumbo and the baby elephant [illegible] There are a [illegible] tracks at that point used in switching cars on the Grand Trunk Air Line which there [illegible] the main road. On one side of the track was [illegible] and on the other a steep embankment. As the train came around a curve the keeper tried to induce Jumbo to go down the embankment, but he refused. The reason at first was not apparent. The baby elephant was in the rear and as the train approached Jumbo began to bellow and swing his trunk. The little elephant seemed dazed, but did not get off the track. As the train was almost upon them Jumbo raised his hind legs as though to protect the baby, and then quick as thought dropped down and coiled him in his trunk and hurled him with great force over all the tracks and against a freight car twenty rods away where he dropped down whining like a puppy with a fore foot [illegible]

Jumbo in saving [illegible] entirely neglected his own chance to escape. The [illegible] struck him with full force on the side [illegible]

LONDON, Sept 18.—Gladstone's manifesto is [illegible] disappointing to the liberals while the conservatives claim to be greatly pleased at the expressions of the ex-premier.

LONDON, Sept 18.—The Daily News interprets the manifesto to mean that Mr. Gladstone intends to lead his party in the house of commons and not retire after the elections. Mr. Gladstone walked to Hawarden church yesterday with his usual elastic step. He is looking remarkably well.

PORTLAND, SATURDAY, SEPT 19 1885

THE DEMOCRAT-MUGWUMP WAR

President Cleveland has at last got himself between two fires each of which, if one may say it without being taxed with a solecism, is growing hotter than the other The worshippers of regular democracy are roasting him on one side, and the devotees of mugwumpery are grilling him on the other It is the offices, of course, that excite this fury The democrats want them, and the mugwumps insist on civil service reform

In New York a good many official changes have been made but not enough to satisfy the yearning of the long hungering democratic soul. The republican subordinates have not all been "bounced" out of the custom house yet, though the heads of the establishment have been changed and the subordinate places are wanted for the small fry democratic workers and politicians, who think themselves quite as worthy of their hire as the more pretentious bosses But here a check is interposed The ward-workers want places, and are told of civil service reform Some of them however are put in, whereupon the mugwump press raises a mighty uproar, and the appointment of a weigher in the custom house becomes a national question.

Both wings of the democracy of New York take it up. They appeal to the president and hurl defiance at the mugwumps. The County democracy and Tammany, though agreeing in little else, unite in declaring that democrats ought to have the offices, and in appealing to the president to bestow them On the night of September 8, the County democracy in a series of resolutions, pronounced against the so-called reform system, which is keeping good democrats out of their heritage declaring that life tenure of office is undemocratic and calculated to nurse into organized existence an aristocratic office-holding class " and that "we condemn the system of competitive examination, conducted by salaried examining boards, as impracticable and offensive to the political traditions and customs of our people." Three days later Tammany followed this with a series of resolutions to the same effect, and quite as emphatic. "Resolved," said Tammany, "that the creation of irresponsible boards or commissions vested with the authority to control or interfere with the exercise of the power of appointment by elective officers, is an abridgment of the privileges conferred on the chosen servants of the people, and we condemn it as an unwarrantable invasion of popular rights, and an undemocratic and indefensible restriction of the vigor and effect of the suffrage.

This action, taken by the powerful democratic organizations of New York, was a proclamation of open defiance to the mugwumps, and it was answered by defiance. In the general committee of the County democracy the resolutions were carried with only three dissenting voices in the general committee of Tammany the vote was unanimous. Tammany has not been regarded as altogether friendly to the president but the County democracy has been supposed to be particularly friendly to him, and indeed in special favor with him The mugwump organs meet this demonstration first by appeals to the president to stand firm, and second by vigorous denunciation of the spoils hunting democracy What the Times and Evening Post have been saying has been received by telegraph The Herald declares the action of the democratic organizations to be "only the beginning of a well planned attack by the machine politicians on the whole civil service system," and adds that "the leaders of the democratic party are taking greater risks than they can afford to if thus early in the administration of public affairs they propose to repudiate the pledges they made to the people and on which they were placed in power The Boston Advertiser says that what the democratic organizations mean is simply this, to-wit "Put none but democrats in office " Only mugwump simplicity, let us say, could have supposed that the triumph of their party could be regarded by democrats as meaning anything else The Boston Globe, leading democratic organ of New England answers the Advertiser and all the other mugwumps, great and small, by declaring that the time has come for the president to show that "this is a democratic administration, which is neither owned by republicans or controlled by a few thousand mugwumps in Boston and New York and that is what the democrats have a right to expect.

But a writer in the New York World mournfully says that the mugwumps have got the president. "Three years ago he was almost unknown even in his own state He has been taken from obscurity and forced up to the highest position with a rapidity which is unknown in the history of American politics He is surrounded by parasites and toadies who cringe and fawn before him for the favors they hope to obtain He lives in an unwholesome atmosphere of flattery, with no real solid, true friend upon whose advice and good judgment he can absolutely rely It is but natural then that Cleveland should in a measure be spoiled by his surroundings. The first office he ever held was that of sheriff in the small town of Buffalo He was elected to that through certain independent republicans coming to the aid of the democratic party He was elected mayor of Buffalo through this same combination of influences Again the independent republicans came to his support. There was a revolt in Buffalo against certain ring managers, and Cleveland was selected as the man upon whom the democrats and independents could unite When he came to run for governor there was again the same combination of circumstances. He was elected governor by republican votes When he was nominated for the presidency he was the only man who could secure the independent support. With their aid he was again elected You will see that in every phase of Cleveland's political history he has had the support of the independent republicans It is the most natural thing in the world therefore that he should exaggerate the importance of their support and feel inclined to shape his entire policy so as to retain it." So the writer in the World finds that Mr Cleveland "believes to-day that the future success of his administration depends upon his being able to retain the approval and support of the independent republicans," and that "all his acts seem to be stimulated by a desire for their approval The theory then is advanced that inasmuch as the mugwumps wish to smash both parties they hope to retain the president and use him as the instrument of destruction and then perhaps offer to him the nomination for the leadership of the new party and it is added that "this is a view of the situation which appears to be taken by the most thoughtful and observing of the politicians of the day

At a time like this developments of the future cannot be foreseen but it may be said that one thing is certain namely that the president is not going to be able to satisfy both mugwumps and democrats.

LOCAL NEEDS

Mr Hermann, our representative in congress, has put in most of the summer in moving about the state, coming into acquaintance with the people, and in a general and in many particular ways preparing himself for his duties at Washington It is not an easy task which the Oregon member has to do The needs of our state are many and its demands proportionate, while its political power is small An Ohio man may accomplish things by the mere weight of the Ohio congressional vote, but the single Oregon vote is scarcely worth attention and our member has to make up in activity what he lacks in political backing An Oregon congressman, to do much of anything for his state, must be alert, he must know thoroughly what he wants and why he wants it, he must have industry that never flags, and a spirit that knows no such word as fail We have had such a man during the past few years in Mr George, and we believe we have another in Mr Hermann The interest and industry he has shown in making himself familiar with the needs of the country are suggestive of a right temper and a right spirit. Mr Hermann has been making a tour of the various ports along the Oregon coast so that he may be able, when he appears before the commerce committees, to plead for appropriations, to show just what is needed and just why it is needed. The embarassment to the people of the coast regions, resulting from the insufficiency or the absolute failure of appropriations for harbor work, during two or three years back, has been very great. Many important districts along the coast are dependent upon these ports for all that makes their industry profitable. Seal up the entrances to the Coquille, Coos, Umpqua, Yaquina and Tillamook bays would be to paralyze one another every local activity. Relying upon the government to keep these ports open and to make them permanent, people have settled about them and their tributaries. Every delay in the government work is a direct injury to them, tending to depreciate the value of their property and to retard local development. Mr Herman has expressed a purpose to make a special effort in behalf of the coast ports and he will be quite right to do so

The great High school building on Morrison street is approaching completion. Its total cost will not be less than $150,000, and it may be more It is in many respects a fine building to look at, but it is none the less a great outrage upon the taxpayers of the city Its conception was a big job, put upon the city by Stokes, the architect, with the assistance of Professors Warren and Crawford, of the public schools. No job of this kind can ever be successfully "worked" on Portland again Next time a public building is to be erected an architect will be employed who is not an unknown adventurer desiring only to make heavy expense, but a man who has interests among us and is amenable to public opinion here This too will do for a lesson against allowing the managers of the school machine to have their way A building could be erected now costing less than $60,000, which would have all the capacity of this finical pile answer even better the purposes required, and not cost one fifth the money to keep it in operation and repair We shall expect now to see a heavy suit against the district for "extras" ordered by Mr Stokes, and in all probability the contractor will win it, compelling the district to pay from $10,000 to $20,000 more An irresponsible architect, seconded by a ring of politicians, or the managers of a school machine is a terror to men and women who pay taxes

The subsidy arrangement between the Pacific Mail steamship company and the transcontinental railroads by which the former has kept out of competition for Pacific coast freight, has always been illegitimate and improper It has cheated coast merchants and others out of advantages which ought naturally to result from the rivalry between rail and ocean carriage It will be good news to the coast if Secretary Lamar's theory reported by telegraph this morning, holds good

J. W. Virtue of Baker City writes to a friend here that there are over 100 locators in the Pine creek mine, from which large assays are obtained. It only remains to be seen what the leads will average at greater depth.

The sportsmen are not to be deterred from going hunting by poor luck. To-morrow morning two boats will leave for Sauvie's island. The boys who killed no ducks last Sunday believe they will have better luck next time.

John Wright who came down from Salem yesterday was at the state fair grounds and said he saw more people there on Thursday than were present on the opening day of the fair last year. This speaks well for the preparation for excellent exhibits this year.

During next week John A. Stevens will produce his plays "Unknown," "Passion's Slave" and "Convict 1240" at the New Market theater. Some idea of the manner in which they will be produced can be formed from the fact that ten tons of scenery for them has been brought along.

THE STAGE.

THE CASINO.—To-night the Wallack Theater company will commemorate their farewell night at the Casino. An extra programme will be presented and the entire front of the Casino will be illuminated. The most successful of all the Wallack plays "Moths" will be given and Miss Ollie Forbett will for the first time play "Auld Lang Syne" during the evening. The Wallack company have met with great favor in this city and the importance of the good bye night will no doubt pack the Casino by the admirers of the company.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

OREGON MADE OILS.—Something was said a short time since about the amount of linseed oil imported here and wonder expressed that the supply for home consumption was not manufactured in this state. A reporter of this paper yesterday met Mr. G. W. Gray, of the Pioneer oil mills at Salem, and made some inquiries concerning this matter. He states that he is prepared to manufacture more oil this year than ever before—probably $70 000 gallons. He obtains his supply of flax seed principally from Linn and Lane counties, contracting for it a year in advance. The crop pays well, he having a day or two since paid one farmer $1549 60 for the seed raised on 160 acres. The oil manufactured at the Pioneer mills is all kettle boiled and cannot be supplied so cheaply as oil mixed with a drying preparation only. Mr. Gray's son and partner was in Europe a few years since and learned to make oil equal to the best English. Parties who take work by contract will buy a cheaper grade of oil if possible, but builders of some of the best blocks erected here stipulated that Salem oil only should be used. The Pioneer mills could easily increase their output to supply the entire demand of the state if builders (the owners, not the contractors) would insist on the best oils, which in the end are always the cheapest.

THE IMMEDIATE DELIVERY SERVICE.—It is thought by those familiar with the subject that the immediate delivery system of letters which goes into effect on the 1st of October will not be a success from the start so far as inter-city communication is concerned for the reason that the city is too compact. Ordinarily there is very little business or social connection between the outskirts and the business section which would demand this immediate delivery and what there is is supplied by telephones to a great extent. What the effect will be on business communication between Portland and the interior is problematical. No doubt Albany, Salem and Oregon City will avail themselves of the new service in sending orders down on the express train in the morning to be filled in time to catch the afternoon train back or with letters requiring immediate answers. Perhaps Vancouver and points on the lower Columbia will fall in when they want orders filled or letters answered by the next morning boat, knowing that if the boat should arrive before, say half past five, the letters will be delivered before business closes. There is likely to be some use for the service between Portland and San Francisco but not between Portland and Eastern cities. The growth of the new service however is likely to be very slow.

THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.—Judge L. D. Thoman of the civil service commission arrived here Thursday and was met at the depot by a number of old Ohio friends and warmly received. The afternoon was spent in company with Postmaster Steel driving through the city. Yesterday a committee of the bar waited upon and introduced him to the judges and other prominent men. Last evening a party of friends chartered a boat and made an excursion to Vancouver and back for the judge's pleasure. To-day civil service examinations will be held at the High school building. This evening a grand invitation reception and banquet will be given him at Alisky's refreshment parlors, by a number of his old friends from Youngstown, Ohio. He will leave for Olympia Sunday. Upon special invitation Monday will be spent with Governor Squires. From there he goes to Seattle, where he conducts an examination on Tuesday. He sails on the steamer from Seattle on the 23d via Victoria B. C. for San Francisco. The judge is very much pleased with the country, and is impressed with its many natural advantages for agriculture and fruit growing.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE STATE FAIR.—It is impossible to give to-day a list of the exhibitors at the state fair, as most of the entries will not be made until Monday. Following are a few of the exhibitors: M. Fisk, O. G. Labaree, Stewart & sons, D. H. Looney, R. C. Hawley, J. J. Parrish, John Minto, J. I. Wheeler, R. W. Carey, I. Myers, J. J. Hastings, G. H. Dimmick, R. B. Hayes, J. M. Gardison, Geo. Goodhue, J. S. Lockingfield, Mrs. J. L. Haas, W. C. Groames, F. M. Rinearson, Seth Luelling, J. H. Lambert, Geo. Belshaw, M. Wilkins, Reed & Ladd, N. W. Randall, Mrs. Taylor. There are many others here now but I do not know them. There are over 100 race horses here now, 100 stalls for premium cattle are engaged and many here for which new stalls must be constructed. Many premium horses are already here and stalls engaged. A large number of people came to-day to camp and are arriving steadily. Goods are arriving by express for exhibition. The track and grounds are in fine condition and prospects now are very flattering indeed. We need only good weather to insure a successful fair.

DRAWBACK TO BELGIAN BLOCKS.—After experimenting with nicholson, macadam and gravel, the city authorities and property owners have learned that Belgian blocks make the only durable roadway thus far tried in this wet climate. But the Belgian block has one serious drawback. The stones wear very smooth and their exposed surface after one or two years use gets round. This is particularly noticeable on Front street where the pavement has been laid about a year longer than on First. Horses shod in the best possible manner often slip and it is very hard for teams to start with heavy loads even in dry weather. The falling of horses is of every day occurrence. Yesterday a reporter of this paper saw two separate horses driven to express wagons, fall at the corner of First and Ash streets and each was going only at an easy trot. The stones are wearing smoother day by day and there is no remedy. It is certain that granite will stand heavy traffic much better than basalt rock, as is evidenced by the granite crosswalks which have been laid for three years, but as yet no granite quarry has been found near Portland.

BLACK SAND MINES.—A gentleman in New York feels confident that he knows of a process by which the black sand mines along the coast of this state can be worked profitably. He has written to J. H. Fisk of this city to procure him all possible information concerning these mines. Parties who own black sand deposits will please send full particulars as to the number of acres in their claims, location, character and depth of deposit and any other information likely to be of interest. The writer saw a black sand mine near Yaquina bay on a recent visit there, and derived much valuable information concerning it from Senator Gilthorn and Hon. W. P. Keady who appeared to understand the subject pretty thoroughly although both gentlemen admitted that they never had been admitted to full fellowship in the honorable craft of black sand miners as neither of them had ever killed a bear.

SURPRISED THE COMRADES.—Last night being the first anniversary of the organization of George Wright relief corps No. —, W. R. C., the ladies of the corps determined to surprise the members of the post. They accordingly prepared a bountiful supply of cake, coffee and other eatables, which they conveyed to their meeting place in the armory adjoining the G. A. R. hall. When the post had worked down to "Good of the Order" a rap was heard at the door and in marched the ladies of the relief corps with the good things they had provided. A very pleasant half hour was spent in disposing of the delicacies. The relief corps is a valuable adjunct to the post and is doing a good work in the families of sick or needy comrades.

DISORDERLY HOTEL RUNNERS.—About three years since an ordinance was passed to put a stop to the shouting and yelling and pulling and hauling of hackmen and hotel runners at the railroad depots and steamer landings. It had a good effect for a while but of late it seems to have been forgotten and passengers arriving here have been subjected to annoyance. Yesterday Policeman James arrested Jack [illegible] for Marks' hackman, [illegible], Tom Lewis, A. Clarke and D. Lesley, hotel runners for soliciting passengers in a loud and boisterous manner. They each put up $10 bail and will have a chance to explain to-day why they were hooting.

THE MONEY MARKET.—A subscriber of twenty years standing asks THE OREGONIAN to state the condition of the money market. Inquiry at the banks elicits the information that people who are entitled to credit can get the money they want. There is no vast amount hoarded up but the banks have all they need for [illegible] demands. [illegible]

THE COBBLESTONES [illegible].—Employes of the Hydraulic Elevator Co. have been at work for several days in the basement of Snell, Heitshu & Woodward's store drilling a shaft for the reception of the ram of an elevator which is to be put into the establishment. That stratum of cobblestones which has always given so much trouble to artesian well borers and others who have endeavored to penetrate the bowels of the earth beneath this city has not decayed in the least. The work makes slow progress, and the material taken out of the hole consists in nearly equal parts of powdered stone and particles of steel from the drill.

COURSE IN VOCAL MUSIC ADDED.—The Bishop Scott Grammar School has included in its list of studies this year a course of vocal music free to all the scholars. The intention is not merely to teach a few class songs by rote but to give a practical course in the rudiments of music sight reading and scientific voice-culture. Dr. Hill the head master, has secured the services of Mr. B. Frank Walters, a gentleman of many years experience in the public and private schools of Philadelphia. The first lesson will be given Monday.

ROAST DUCK AND WATERMELON.—At this time we Oregonians are enjoying a combination of summer and autumn weather, which for comfort and pleasure can not be excelled in any part of the world. Fruit of nearly every variety including strawberries is in big supply and most of it cheap. And strictly winter delicacies are coming in. Last night the writer enjoyed for dinner two dishes which seldom find their way to the table at the same season. One was roast mallard ducks, the other watermelon.

APPLES TO NEW ZEALAND.—Last night the State of California took out 200 boxes of winter Baldwin apples consigned by C. K. Williams of Powell's valley to W. Pebbles, Napier, New Zealand. About this time last year Mr. Williams made a consignment of 100 boxes to the same place. It turned out perfectly satisfactory to the consignee, and the shipper got a good price for his fruit. The apples will be six weeks getting to their destination.

MORE STRAWBERRIES.—There was quite a lot of fine ripe strawberries in the market yesterday which found a ready sale at 35 cents per basket. They came from the narrow strip on the east side, and the grower says that his vines are well stocked with a new crop which will be ripe in a few days if the present fine weather continues.

GOLD QUARTZ IN WASHINGTON COUNTY.—From a reliable source we learn that what appears to be a valuable ledge of gold quartz, of the character generally known as rose quartz, has recently been discovered on the property of Henry C. Raymond on Patton's creek, about six miles from Gaston.—Hillsboro Independent.

NOT AN INTELLIGENCE OFFICE.—THE OREGONIAN is an excellent medium for everybody to make known his wants and its columns are generally resorted to with that view. While the attaches of the paper answer, if possible, reasonable questions, they cannot be expected to fill the place usually occupied by persons connected with an intelligence office. Our readers should carefully scrutinize the advertisements, which explain themselves.

SPRUNG A LEAK.—Last night the water company's main at the intersection of Third and Market streets sprung a leak. The water did not burst up in a stream, but it percolated freely through the macadam for a distance of two blocks, flooding the gutters at either side of the street and covering the street car track in several places. At 2 o'clock this morning nothing had been done to stop the leak.

NOT YET SIGNED.—Mayor Gates was called away to The Dalles on Thursday, so the anti gambling ordinance has not been signed yet. President Fleidner will have to sign it if the mayor does not return soon. It will go into effect as soon as signed, but will probably not be enforced until after official publication. This will give the boys time to pass in their checks and get them cashed.

THE COURTS.

There was but little business yesterday before Judge Smith in department No 1 although there are over four hundred cases on file with the clerk, and it took less than five minutes to transact it. The case of Wilhelmina Mohr against Geo. I. Hibbard and others was dismissed. Samuel Holden was made a citizen of the United States and this was all.

The notice published a few days ago in THE OREGONIAN that Judge Smith would adjourn court if the attorneys did not come forward with their cases served to stir up only about fifteen out of the four hundred pending, just enough to keep the court moving for a few days. Five of these fifteen cases came from one firm of attorneys. Most of the other lawyers seem to think they are on their vacation yet. The delays of the law of which so much complaint is made are in a majority of instances not the fault of the court but of the lawyers for usually the longer the time before the case is settled the bigger the fee.

DECISION TO BE ANNOUNCED

Judge Smith will this morning in the state circuit court department No 1, announce his decision in the case of W. W. Johnson vs. R. M. Kyle and others, upon the motion to strike out parts of the answer.

CRIMINAL BUSINESS

The trial of John Sisson the Oak street highwayman who attempted to rob Fred Turner, which was set for trial before Judge Stearns in department No 2 of the state circuit court, was postponed until some time next week. The district attorney asked for the postponement because the principal witness had gone to attend the funeral of his mother and could not be present for several days. Mr. Gleason the prisoner's attorney objected to any postponement as the defense was ready for trial. In order to expedite matters he offered a plea to assault only, but this the district attorney refused to accept and the case was continued.

The case of Henry Bacon indicted for larceny from the person of Charles Pugh was set for trial next Wednesday.

F. Carey the freight car burglar, appeared and pleaded not guilty, but was not ready for trial. At the request of his attorney the case was continued until next week.

The grand jury was not in session yesterday but will meet at 10 o'clock this morning.

Judge Stearns yesterday dismissed the trial jury with instructions to report Monday morning, to Judge Smith in department No. 1.

EQUITY SUIT DISMISSED

H. H. Northrup referee in the case of Nicolai Bros against Mrs. R. L. Hawthorne wherein the plaintiffs sued for certain amounts assigned them by J. W. Eller who in July 1883 constructed several new houses for the defendant in East Portland submitted a report announcing that there was no testimony to take in the matter and asked at the request of Mrs. Hawthorne that the case be dismissed as there was no longer any cause for action. An order of dismissal was accordingly made.

POLICE COURT.

The cases of Anton Mandens and Bruno Sting, the former for assault and battery and the latter for larceny by bailee were continued until Monday.

The cases of Joe Taylor for keeping a disorderly house, and of Frank Silva and Bill Harlan for assault and battery and fighting, were tried yesterday and after lengthy argument submitted to Judge Moreland who reserved his decision for the present. The question of fact to be decided is whether the bunko sparring match was a fight or an exhibition of skill. If the former the defendants are guilty as the law clearly says a glove contest with the intent of each party to whip the other constitutes an assault or a fight.

THE EAST SIDE.

Rev. T. L. Eliot of Portland will hold religious services at Neppach's hall to-morrow evening, and preach on "The Day of Judgment."

The mill property of E. A. Jerome & Co. on Fifth street is announced to be sold on the premises at sheriff's sale at 10 o'clock this morning.

Capt. W. H. Foster has built a landing in front of McMillen's addition for the accommodation of passengers traveling by the Albina ferry.

C. F. Benton and wife leave by the outgoing steamer en route to San Diego, Cal., where they will reside permanently, having two sons located there.

Mrs. C. N. Ransom will by request give a recitation at the centennial temperance services to be held at the M. E. church Sunday evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

A. Walker of the Oregon Iron Fence works has been awarded the contract to furnish 40 feet of wrought iron cresting for the new and handsome residence of Capt. George Flavel at Astoria.

The public schools of district No. 21 reopen on Monday, in view of which fact the principal Prof. W. A. Wetzell desires to meet the teachers at the Central building, at 2:30 to-day in order to confer with them in regard to the work for the coming year.

C. Gruner administrator of the estate of Mr. Baer has received the power of attorney from relatives in Germany to sell the property of the deceased consisting of two lots on the corner of Eleventh and D streets and two lots on the corner of Ninth and Adams streets.

About half past six last evening a ward alarm was rung by Pioneer bell and the boys turned out with their apparatus but it soon transpired there was no need for their services. The kitchen stove at the store and residence of W. G. Register on I street between Fourth and Fifth kicked one of its legs off and fell over and his boy the only person present in the room at the time rushed frantically into the street and yelled fire with all his lungs were worth which caused the alarm to be given. Mr. Register however quickly returned and averted danger.

At the regular meeting of Pioneer engine company last evening a notice of motion was made to amend the by laws so as to make the absence of members from the city at the time of a fire or meeting of the company inexcusable between the hours of 8 P. M. and 6 A. M., except by the consent of two-thirds of the members present at the next regular meeting. Apart from the doubtful policy of such a law it would subject the members to a penalty that is not imposed by other companies and could hardly be approved by the board of delegates which would be necessary to legalize it to the exemption of the rest of the department. The life and energy of the company consists in its younger members, and property owners who are interested in and appreciate their services which are entirely gratuitous doubtless would not object to their visiting the theatre occasionally or availing themselves of other sources of pleasure which take them from the city without rendering themselves liable to be taxed for the privilege.

A PAIR OF SNIDE LECTURERS

OREGON CITY, Sept.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Allow me to use your widely-circulated paper for the purpose of warning all churches, temperance workers and people generally against being duped by a Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Anderson, who are now visiting the towns and villages of the Northwest, preaching, lecturing and selling pictures of Grant. Mr. Anderson does not pretend to be a preacher, but has two or three sermons which he delivers when he has opportunity—for a collection. This he finds is a good way to improve Sunday mornings and afternoons, while in the evening his wife comes in for a temperance lecture—and another collection. For week day evenings she has a lecture on the "Rise and Fall of American Bangs" and one upon "Abraham Lincoln," and I know not what else. They present many commendations and tell a smooth story, but I have the most satisfactory evidence that they are impostors. In response to inquiries prompted by grave suspicions I have just received letters informing me of their doings in other towns. One of my informants is a minister from whose letter I take the following:

"They are snides without a redeeming quality, and when Anderson attempts to preach he is simply working his duplicity under the livery of heaven. I have heard from them at other points and can only learn of a career of roguery and rascality. It is a shame that the public must suffer by such impostors and I hope the people of your city will take measures to stop their wholesale system of fraud. If you can devise any means of getting the $18 they owe here I shall feel you have done a great favor."

But the trouble is by the time this letter reached me they had taken their departure, I presume to impose upon an unsuspecting public elsewhere. But THE OREGONIAN will doubtless reach the town they are now working, and at the same time forewarn other places against them.

PERSONAL.

G. Neimeyer is still confined to his room with typhoid malaria but hopes to be out in a short time.

J. J. Barclay, representing Wm. Hume, was in this city yesterday negotiating for the sale of a large lot of salmon. He seemed to be well pleased with his success.

Miss Fannie Sewall, who has been visiting her friend Mrs. H. W. Ogilbe on Palatine Hill for the past seven weeks, returned home yesterday, much benefited by the trip.

Messrs. G. W. Gage, and C. H. Carter, who represent J. C. Ayer & Co., start for California overland on Monday in their own conveyance. They speak highly of Oregon, and will give a good account of the state to their Eastern friends.

LINES IN SOUTHERN OREGON.

ASHLAND, Sept. 15, 1885.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Noticing that with your usual enterprise, and your ambition to keep abreast, if not a little in advance of the times in all matters pertaining to the development and advancement of the Pacific north west, you are at present devoting pointed attention to what is destined to shortly become one of its most important and extensive interests viz: mining for the precious metals, I ask space to submit a few brief remarks upon the mining outlook in southern Oregon, or more particularly speaking in Jackson county. I am led to forward this communication from having perused your correspondent's recent articles from the location of the new mineral discoveries in eastern Oregon known as the Pine creek camp and I shall confine myself to a brief comparison of the respective mineral merits of that locality and this, basing my remarks upon his statements upon one hand, and my own observation on the other and confining myself to three points, viz: quantity, value and accessibility.

First as to the quantity and value. I have had excellent opportunities for observation here, and have spent much time among the mining and especially the quartz mining districts of the west and I am firmly of the opinion, and believe that my judgment can and will be sustained by demonstration, that there is within ten miles of the thriving little city of Ashland the actual basis of a far more valuable quartz mining district than is embraced in the entire much lauded Pine creek region.

The location referred to is known as the Wagner creek district and while it has long been known to be rich in minerals bearing the precious metals it has never been prospected to any extent. The people throughout this region, at least such as the miners among them go, are chiefly old [illegible] believing only in the richest placers and therefore only three or four ledges out of the great number known to exist are being held with a view to actual development.

Your correspondent states the average size of the Pine creek ledges to be from 10 inches to a foot in width. The three ledges that I am conversant with here as being now prospected are the Pilgrim owned by Messrs. Walsh and Brown, which shows from five to seven feet and a depth of sixty feet of actual paying ore, the Fisk owned by the same parties, showing from two to four feet of pay rock, and the Siskiyou which is from ten to twenty feet thick with from five to ten thousand tons of paying quartz already in sight. An average of the quartz from the first named of these ledges has assayed from $25 to $50, from the second from $40 to $60, and from the third from $60 to $75 per ton each, the assays being made from surface rock not nearly so good as that now in sight. The work has been done by the most reliable of the Portland assayers, a general average only being aimed at. The average assays of the Pine creek camp according to your [illegible] shows from $24 to $8 per ton, the ore being very base, while here it is free milling and the value almost entirely free gold. Thus in the size of the ledges so far prospected, and there is no reason to believe that the numerous others still to be examined are not equally extensive, Wagner creek can heavily discount Pine creek and the general value and character of the ores appear also to be far superior. In the matter of accessibility this location is so far superior as to constitute an advantage almost beyond the pale of comparison. While Pine creek is limited from forty to seventy miles within the depths of an almost impenetrable wilderness and overwhelmed with driving snow storms for nearly half the year the Wagner creek district is located within four miles of a depot on the Oregon & California railroad with an excellent wagon road passing through it blessed with a climate in which outdoor labor is never interrupted by stress of weather, and surrounded by a rich farming district from which all mining supplies can be drawn at an almost nominal price. Such are briefly and merely in outline a few points connected with possible mining operations in this immediate locality while many other points in this region particularly in the vicinity of Jacksonville and Gold Hill present perhaps equally strong advantages.

To my mind and anyone who will examine it must come to the same conclusion, the wonder is that this region has so long escaped the attention of mining men, for it is worthy of a critical examination in reference to mining operations on a large scale. And I sincerely hope that Portland capitalists may shortly come to see and appreciate the advantages that lie within their immediate reach within their own gates as it were and not much longer hold to what is shortly to be exploded tradition, namely, that nothing good can come out of southern Oregon.

NO THIRD PARTY

SILVERTON, Sept. 1

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Some time ago in an article on the liquor question I took the ground that the question of prohibition should go before the people on its own merits and entirely independent of party affiliations. I will now give my reasons for refusing to co-operate with the so-called "national prohibition party."

First.—The organization of a third party just now for the suppression of the liquor traffic, is unnecessary. When the public mind is sufficiently aroused as it is now on this great question it can compel one or both of the existing parties to do its bidding. There seems to be in the public mind an entire misconception both of the power and independence of party. Party according to the commonly received opinion seems to be a self-constituted self-existing and irresponsible body invested with certain arbitrary powers which it can use at its own discretion. Hence the common remark "The republican party will grant no more favors to prohibition." This erroneous opinion concerning the functions of the machine has been sedulously cultivated by the demagogues.

The great underlying principle of this government that the people are the source of all power should never be lost sight of. The machine is merely the agent, the servant of its creator, the people, and its only province is obedience to the popular will. When the machine arrogates to itself powers which do not belong to it and attempts to use its brief authority for its self aggrandizement then the only course for the people to pursue is to squelch the concern and set up a new one.

Twenty five years ago the republican party came into existence in response to a great popular demand. To-day the public conscience is profoundly agitated on an evil, if not so hideous in its features as human slavery, more far reaching in its terrible effect and the great question is, how shall we destroy this twin sister of slavery—the rum power.

That the majority of voters are agreed as to the necessity of closing the saloon cannot be doubted by the ordinary observer. Then how shall it be done. The solution to this problem is simple indeed. Since the majority rule it is only necessary for it to say to the leaders, our servants: "Do our will on this temperance question," and the order will be promptly obeyed.

Second. The second objection to a separate political organization for the suppression of the liquor traffic is the inherent or inevitable tendency of party to corruption. Should the main body of temperance people in Oregon organize a third party twelve months would not elapse until every office seeker in the state would have flocked into its fold. Under the manipulation of this combination of rascals no great moral cause under the sun could for a moment bear up. No we want no third party. Two are as many as the people can stand at once. For the above mentioned reasons I am opposed to a division of the prohibition vote as the third party will certainly do. If Chaplain Stubbs, whom I greatly honor and the others like him would go to the primaries as is their duty, and control things in the interest of decency the enemy would at once be put to rout.

The great majority of republicans believe in prohibition, and independent in action will vote their sentiments in any contingency. Not so however with the democracy. That idiotic and devilish spirit of party still holds in political and mental bondage the great body of them. If the question of prohibition pure and simple be presented to these [illegible]. If however it has the last taint of republicanism [illegible] their faith will not stand the test.

All things considered then [illegible] on its merits.

A TYPICAL SOUTHERN DEMOCRAT

THE DALLES, Sept. 1.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I hope you will publish the enclosed from the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser. Renfroe was the originator of the ku klux klan in Alabama and committed the foulest murders in Sumter county, Alabama. For this he was elected sheriff by the democrats. Notice well the Advertiser's language. "He was once the leader of men in the cause of justice." That was when he led the ku klux. Then again "He did his part to break the shackles of a people." That was also when he organized the ku klux and wholesale murder of republicans. Two white men (mail agents) were his first victims in Sumter county, Alabama where he and his klan stopped a train to commit the foul murder in open daylight. For all of this he was never punished, though he is sent [illegible]. He and the Advertiser are specimens of the southern feeling of to-day.

AN OLD SOUTHERN REPUBLICAN.

Montgomery Daily Advertiser. Published by Screws, Corry & Glass.

Mr. S. S. Renfroe, ex-sheriff of Sumter county, on last Thursday, in the court house at Livingston pleaded guilty to the crime of horse stealing, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years. Here is the irony of fate, a drama unwritten, a tragedy without footlights. A man has played his own part, the high hopes and bright scenery of the opening were all [illegible], our [illegible] the closing tears are real, the drop curtain fashioned by crime's own hand.

He tasted the sweets of life but drank deep of the bitter. His career was dotted with good, but blotched with bad. He was once the leader of men in the cause of justice. In the same cause he is led to chains and a criminal's garb.

He once executed the law's stern mandate, but himself now feels its heavy hand. In the court house where once he ruled he but yesterday sat behind the bar of justice and faced the pity of an idle crowd. He did his part to break the shackles of a people. They have done their part in sending him to prison. He ruled a county once, first as its chief political organizer and law officer, and then by the terror of his name. He is gone now and is scarce a memory. Mothers frightened their children with his shadow. Even that has faded. In a lawless time he rose, and was happily the instrument of good. Under the reign of law he seeks his level. The mines are ready for the prey that is their due.

Ghirardelli's Cocoa is recommended by all physicians. Hygienic and nourishing.

ITEMS FROM THE DALLES

THE DALLES, Sept 18.

Circuit court for Wasco county will begin on the 28th inst, with a fair docket.

The county court has at last taken steps toward erecting a free bridge across the Des Chutes so long needed.

The anti-gambling ordinance recently passed by the Portland council is a good one for The Dalles council to pass.

The Wasco Independent academy opened this year with a larger attendance than usual which is daily increasing.

The public schools have begun their winter's work, with Professor D. [illegible] as principal and [illegible] able corps of assistants.

St. Mary's academy has its usual number of young lady students and is doing good work. The Dalles is well supplied with excellent schools.

[illegible] T. Gilsan the man who shot and killed Mr. Pratt at Antelope recently is 50 years old and has a family of nine children. He has been committed to jail without bail to await the sitting of the grand jury.

George Gardiner of Cascades who was so brutally assaulted and beaten by C. A. Stewart is in this city for treatment and is rapidly recovering. M. Spingarn who was assaulted and shot at the same time, has recovered.

UNION ITEMS

UNION, Sept. 15

A. Levy has commenced the loading of about twenty cars of barley consigned to Sibson, Church & Co.

Wheat is being delivered at the Union mills at 45 and 50 cents per bushel. Barley is selling at 35 cents, oats 60 cents.

A troop of sixty of Walla Walla's cavalrymen passed through this city to-day en route to Malheur on a hunting expedition.

Work train No. 30 is stationed at the depot with three gangs of Chinamen and a gang of carpenters and will soon commence the erection of a snow shed around the Hutchinson point one mile from Union.

Joel Hubbard the young horse thief is again confined in the county jail and Mr. Saunders is teaching him how to fare on bread and water a few days, and then see if he can appreciate good treatment.

D. D. Griffith left the city on Monday with his party and accompanied by three viewers appointed by the last session of the county court to survey and locate the road from the city to the mines. They intend to chain the whole distance so as to get the correct number of miles.

REPORT OF PILOT COMMISSIONERS

OFFICE OF BOARD OF PILOT COMMISSIONERS
ASTORIA, Oregon, Sept. 14, 1885.

Hon. R. P. Earhart, Secretary of State, Salem, Oregon. We have the honor to report that we made the semi-annual tour of inspection required by law on the 8th inst. As you know from former report there is no Oregon pilot service on the bar, all piloting in and out over the Columbia river bar being done by Washington territory pilots. In this connection we will say that this condition will soon be changed. In accordance with an act of the last legislature we have caused to be commenced and have now in process of completion a staunch sea going vessel to be used as a pilot schooner, and we expect in a few weeks to have an efficient bar service of Oregon pilots. The river service we find up to the standard, all that can be desired and no cause for complaint, excepting one instance wherein charges were preferred against Pilot H. A. Snow. The board having received such complaint on September 8 (at time of tour of inspection) have not had time to fully examine whether just grounds exist for preferring same or not. Yours respectfully,

A. NOYES, Pres. Board Pilot Coms.
C. W. LOUNSBERRY, Sec'y.

THE HAY CREEK MINES

PORTLAND, Sept. 1.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I have just returned from the Hay creek mines and feel it my duty to give the public a few facts. This place is 100 miles south of The Dalles. There is a quartz region five or six miles wide and fifteen or more miles long. I do not believe that gold or silver has been discovered in it. Messrs. Jennie and Fish have found nothing in it. Rev. N. Clarke has given it quite a thorough prospect and finds no trace. An old and scientific expert has made an extensive examination from three lodes for me and he reports "nothing." C. A. Van Houton with whom I stopped twenty five days talked freely. He doubts if any discoveries have been made, and wishes the people to be careful and not spend their time and money where everything is so uncertain.

There may hereafter be some paying lodes discovered. It costs about $30 to go from Portland to that place.

COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY, Sept. 18.

An advance of one-quarter of a cent in sugars is telegraphed from San Francisco this afternoon, and prices here are that much higher on all grades.

Overland receipts include cars stoves, [illegible] farm implements, 40 bls [illegible] bacon [illegible] dried beef, [illegible] hams, [illegible] candles, [illegible] bxs tin, 85 pkgs tobacco.

The war in freight rates from the west continues quite spirited. Grain and provisions from Chicago to New York have now reached the unprecedented low point of 8 cents per 100 lbs, and grain all rail from St. Paul to New York 20 cents per 100 lbs., against 30 by the water route.

The number of hogs packed in the West between March 1st and August 19th was 3,385,000, against 2,850,000 for the same time last year. Of this year's packing Chicago used 1,800,000, Kansas City 580,000, Milwaukee 148,000, Indianapolis 135,000, St. Louis 130,000, Cedar Rapids 132,000, Cleveland 38,000, Cincinnati 72,000, Omaha 35,000.

SALMON SHIPMENTS.—Per str Columbia: Cutting 30, Pillar Rock 1,00, Sibson Church & Co. 2000, Astoria Packing company 200—total 3'30 cases.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS.—Past 24 hours: [illegible] ctls wheat, 2,11 ctls oats, 1118 ctls barley, [illegible] sks potatoes, 1318 lbs hides, 42 cs eggs, 1003 bxs fruit, 5 pkgs butter. Also 13,245 ctls wheat, 400 bbls flour, 502 bs hides, 11,175 lbs wool from the eastern section.

WHEAT.—Foreign markets cabled steadier. Chicago and New York opened lower but ruled steady. Altogether our advices cannot be said to show any decided change in the general situation. Locally there is a fair inquiry at rates last quoted and sales are becoming more frequent. Walla Walla buyers, in extreme instances, are still paying rather more than our shippers can stand, but such purchases do not exert any particular influence as they are limited.

BARLEY.—Valley receipts noted to-day are largely for brewers' account. The market is without change.

OATS.—Puget sound is shipping two steamers arriving at San Francisco this month with 716 sacks and one sailing later with 5000 sacks. With these shipments added to Oregon it is difficult to see how even the present prices can be maintained. Our shippers are just now taking very little and the market wears a weak tone.

EGGS.—Arrivals light and stocks low to-day. Most dealers obtaining 25c and we quote 22 1/2@25c.

CHICKENS.—Market irregular and supplies are heavy. There is a fair request but it does not take all offered. Quote $2@3 50.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Sept 18.—Governments [illegible] and steady. The most prominent feature of to-day's stock market was strength developed in coal stocks. First prices as a rule were the lowest of the day and highest prices were generally realized by 2 o'clock. In the forenoon the market was irregular and only moderately active. After moving up and down with a narrow range during the forenoon it became more decidedly strong after midday, but in the last hour developed extreme dullness, accompanied by a slight reaction in quotations. There was a small raid at one time on Pacific Mail which drove prices down, but it rallied later and closed with a gain of 1/4. St. Paul was comparatively quiet, and barely steady, closing midway between the highest and lowest prices of the day with a net loss of [illegible]. Among the Gould stocks, which were quiet, Western Union was unchanged, Union Pacific 1/4 lower, Missouri, Kansas & Texas 1/4, and Kansas & [illegible] higher. The spurt mentioned which occurred a couple of days ago has entirely subsided. Early in the afternoon a dispatch from Boston was circulated stating that President Adams pronounced the story that the Burlington & Missouri road would immediately build into Union Pacific territory absolutely false, but later a dispatch was received here saying the Burlington & Missouri track had passed Norton September 10 and that the grade and bridges were completed to [illegible]. The road will take nine-tenths of the business of this section.

SHERMAN'S SECOND SPEECH.

St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Senator Sherman's second speech in the Ohio campaign is weighty and well considered. To neither the matter nor the manner of this address can exception be taken. Mr. Sherman has been very generally charged, since the opening of the canvass, with waving once more the bloody shirt. This has been the burden of the press and of the answer which Governor Hoadly attempted to make. In his Lebanon speech he showed that the southern question has only changed its terms. Formerly it hinged upon personal outrages and the right of helpless citizens to protection. Now it turns upon civic rights and the right of all men to equal participation in the representation in the government. The strength of the position of which Senator Sherman [illegible] is that it is not a [illegible] brought by [illegible] adversaries against the democratic party, but it rests upon the open confession [illegible] of leading southern democrats themselves. The position taken by [illegible] of the South [illegible] state it [illegible] The whole [illegible] The essence of the reply that has been made to Mr. Sherman [illegible] That [illegible] is no longer required. The ruling [illegible] party [illegible] the better way than that [illegible] disfranchisement of the negro through fraud. They do not [illegible] him to stay away from the polls through fear of the shotgun, but they have control of the machinery and [illegible] his ballot as so much waste paper. In every southern state it is openly [illegible] majority [illegible] arbitrarily determined upon, and that [illegible] majority without reference to the vote cast. Now this is a [illegible] thing [illegible] itself, but neither does Mr. Sherman stop to dilate upon it. He merely says that the people of the country will not permit the results [illegible] Under the old regime three-fifths of the slaves counted in making up the basis of representation. Under the new [illegible] counts which [illegible] before the last amendment was added to the constitution. Carry the doctrine [illegible] to the extreme limit, and we have [illegible] a state affair, but a matter of national concern. The 6,000,000 of colored people give the South a title to thirty-eight members of congress and [illegible] These thirty-eight members are [illegible] not merely by the white vote but by the [illegible] of the democratic party. It [illegible] the political power. It is asserted [illegible] that the people of [illegible] the majority [illegible] to the party that profits by [illegible] If this be the meaning of the bloody shirt [illegible] until [illegible] part of the country as in another. There is no issue which, in this country, can take precedence of the right of the people to self government. While the democratic party not only denies that right but profits by the denial, the first duty of the citizen must be to stand by the constitution and to cast from power in every free community those who make [illegible] the spoil of a political [illegible]

PITH AND POINT.

The treasury department has no more authority to prohibit the circulation of small notes than the postoffice department has to stop the trade.—Troy Republican.

Some newspapers delight in harassing contemporaries with knotty and cruel conundrums. Says the Boston Journal: "The steemed Herald fails to respond to our entreaties to point out a single offensive democratic partisan upon whom the [illegible] has visited his displeasure."

The Columbus Enquirer wants to exterminate worthless dogs in Georgia. [illegible] will talk with Col. Tom Howard for about ten minutes he will learn that many thousand pine woods Georgians prefer one mangy dog to a flock of [illegible] and a woolen factory.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

A newspaper happening to observe that Chicago has fifty-eight murderers in jail, the Inter Ocean promptly resents the insinuation that such a miserable showing would fairly be proudly pro[illegible] claiming that Chicago has three times that many murderers [illegible] a friend [illegible] Chicago doesn't take the bear.

For the sake of the reform party we hope both the [illegible] parties will refuse [illegible] the other [illegible] but what will they do [illegible] poor things?—New York Sun.

The Independent, which is more of a political journal than a religious journal, is advising the prohibitionists of Ohio to vote the republican ticket. The Independent, it will be remembered, [illegible] cheap and watery [illegible] St. John [illegible] because [illegible] and was too holy to support Blaine.—Exeter Republican.

There is a growing impression that the prohibitionists of Michigan may make trouble this fall, for they claim to have 5,000 votes. If they run an independent ticket there will be no doubt about the result in the state, for nearly all of them have acted with the republican party and have been faithful [illegible] In cases where the republican [illegible] the [illegible] democrats.—K[illegible]

A WARNING AND INFORMATION TO IMMIGRANTS.

You can buy improved farms just as cheaply and of equally good land in Clarke county, W. T., as you can much south of Oregon.

You are warned that southern Oregon is several hundred miles from Portland, which is the only produce market in this country, while Clarke county, W. T., is but a few miles north of that city.

You are warned that it will cost you from $9 to $10 per ton to ship your produce from southern Oregon, while at most it will cost you but [illegible] from Clark county.

You are warned that your supplies and machinery will cost [illegible] more in southern Oregon than in Portland, where you can buy at [illegible]

You are informed that it will cost you but two days' time and not more than three dollars in money to prove the truth and value of this warning. To do so take the steamer Traveler, at the foot of Morrison street, Portland, which carries you along nearly the whole of one side of this county to the new and fast-growing manufacturing town of La Camas. The fare is but 50 cents, and hotel expenses are light.

AFTER DINNER.

Persons who suffer from Indigestion can arrest the progress of that painful malady by the use of an after-dinner pill, so composed that it will give tone to the stomach, prevent heartburn, rouse the liver to healthful action, invigorate the kidneys, and thus, through the activity of these organs, promote the natural movement of the stomach and bowels. AYER'S PILLS are so compounded that their action, though mild, effectually produces the above results. They also, in curing Constipation, remove the cause of Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Kidney Disease, Rheumatism, and many other serious ailments.

AYER'S PILLS

contain no mineral nor poisonous substance, and do not gripe unless the bowels are irritated, and even then their influence is healing. To continue their effect in constipated or chronic cases, they need only be taken in diminishing instead of increasing doses. For seamen, and inhabitants or travelers in sparsely settled countries where physicians are not at hand, they are of inestimable value. There is hardly a sickness they will not alleviate, and in most cases cure, if taken promptly. To young girls just entering upon womanhood, and to women whose period of maternity is drawing to a close, Ayer's Pills, in moderate doses, are sufficient to ensure regular action of the bowels, will be found of Incalculable Value.
